

Rules for working in the laboratory

1. Please shut down your computer when disappearing from lab.
2. Please respect your co-workers in the lab.
3. Student researches are not allowed access to shelved lab equipment. Always ask your supervisor or designate researcher for providing you the materials and equipment.
4. Avoid inviting your friends to the lab. This is a research area and disturbance to research activity is not allowed.
5. Eatables are not allowed inside the lab area.
6. If you need general help, best to consult your designate supervisor.
7. In no circumstances, shift materials and equipments from one station to another.
8. Do not change your allocated station.
9. Please use commonsense regarding safety protocols.
10. Please use commonsense measures to avoid disturbing your peers and co-workers.
11. All students maintain a scientific log book. (Mandatory)